

2023 Community Partner Scholarship Application

The Better Buildings by Design (BBD) conference is pleased to once again offer 20 community partner scholarships to individuals who are actively involved in their Vermont town energy committees or have undertaken other efforts to reduce the burden of energy use in their community. All scholarship recipients will receive a reduced registration fee of $50/day to attend the 2023 BBD conference.

We strongly encourage those from traditionally socially disadvantaged communities to apply.
